Miss Lucille Tatum was in town last week on business.

More Co-Operation Needed

LAC LA BICHE — The local fire department seems to be up against a stone wall when it comes to receiving co-operation from the townspeople. Surely, it is a well known fact that any vehicle with a siren has the right of way and all others, vehicles and pedestrians, must clear the road.

This, however, does not seem to be the case in Lac la Biche. The fire engine can have the siren on full blast and the cars just nonchalantly proceed on their way and nicely block the road for the truck.

It is immaterial whether the brigade is out on a practise routine, or on a real call, they definitely should get the right of way.

Just put yourself in the position of a person whose home is on fire. They are anxiously awaiting help and the fire brigade endeavors to get there at full speed but due to the lack of co-operation of some thoughtless citizens, waste time and are too late to render much help.

Would the average citizen then give the department credit for trying, or would they only be too eager to sit back and criticise, not putting the blame where it rightly belongs.

When you hear the siren pull over to the curb and wait until the vehicle passes, and above all, do not run over the hose once it is strung out to the hydrant.

The town officials, are hoping that a few simple rules will be adhered to, if not they are ready to enforce the law and issue tickets to people caught violating and thus make it punishable by fines.

Dominion Day Annual Sports Attracts Large Crowd Interested Fans

LAC LA BICHE — Better than one thousand paid admissions, adults only attended the meet. Teams from Wandering River, Amber Valley, and Lac la Biche were present to stage some very good fastball games, and compete for the prize money.

The final game of the day was the highlight one, when the Lac la Biche team and Wandering River battled it out to a close finish with a score of 6-5 for Wandering River resulting in Wandering River taking the $300 first prize money. Crowds cheered themselves hoarse as the game see-sawed back and forth. Second prize $150, went to Lac la Biche. Third and fourth teams received $50 each.

Girl's softball teams from Charron and Plamondon were on hand to compete with the Lac la Biche team with the following results: First game Plamondon 5, Lac la Biche 28; second game Charron 5, Lac la Biche 4. The first prize of $25 was awarded to the Charron club, while Lac la Biche took the second prize of $15.

Refreshment booths sponsored by the Lions Club, Ladies' Aid of the United Church, Ladies of St. Catherine and the Girl's Softball Club, did a roaring business of selling hot dogs, hamburgers, pop, watermelon and ice cream and chocolate bars.

Alongside of the refreshment booths were several displays of local merchants including: Hamilton & Sons, International Harvester Implement, Homeniuk's, Cockshutt Implement, Central Garage, Lakeside Motors and the Lac la Biche Garage.

The day's activities were drawn to a close by a gala dance at the Memorial hall, with the local orchestra in attendance and a capacity crowd attending. The $250 credit note donated by Lakeside Motors was won by Mike Maskalyk.

Auto Driving Tests Now In Effect

EDMONTON — The Alberta government's driver-testing program went into effect Monday of this week. The tests are compulsory for all new licence applicants and motorists seeking re-instatement following suspension for traffic law infractions.

At the start, the tests will be conducted by three-man crews in Edmonton and Calgary only for persons living within a 15-mile radius of these cities. Officials said they want to "get the bugs out" of the program before making it province-wide.

The program calls for a three-way test: physical, written or oral examination and a road test. The physical test will be concerned with vision mainly.

An applicant with poor "depth perception" officials stated would not likely be refused a licence but would be forewarned of his fault. The same applied to persons with poor "side vision" who could see only objects directly in front of them.

The road test is designed to test a driver's ability to handle a car in traffic, to park, to move from lane to lane and to show their all-round practical knowledge of the rules of the road.

Fifteen year olds may apply for a test immediately, but the licence will not be granted until their sixteenth birthday.

Directing the driver-testing program will be P. J. Rowan who for more than 20 years has been a civil servant and who has headed the province's safety educational unit for the past two years.

Athabasca Chatter

By H. A. ROSE

A number from Athabasca enjoyed the Community Picnic held at Calling Lake on Sunday, June 28. A few showers made the roads well nigh impassable in spots, and we hear tell of a few who sat in the ruts over night, but the ones who got there and back really had a grand day. The lake was at its best and many sports were enjoyed by young and old, not the least of which was a ball game between Athabasca and Calling Lake and let me hasten to add—it was no league teams, which were playing—but with players such as Mr. Alosio, Reg. Pierce, O. Gosselin, Roy Stewart and others too numerous to mention, well they tell us it was a game long to be remembered.

Many old friends in the district are very glad to have Mrs. J. H. Stark of Rosedale, B.C., visiting here.

The annual United Church S.S. Picnic was held at Baptiste Lake on Thursday, June 25 and cars and trucks took youngsters and oldsters to enjoy the outing. The day was not all to be desired but the rain held up long enough to enjoy a beautiful supper on the Appieby camp grounds.

The Gleishman family have moved to Golden, B.C., where Mr. Gleishman is engaged in lumbering. We are going to miss them very much, but best wishes go along with them to their new home.

On June 26 a number from our Local FWUA went to Hazel Bluff to attend the annual conference. The sessions were under the direction of our FWUA director, Mrs. R. N. Russell, and proved both interesting and entertaining. The Hazel Bluff Local served meals in the hall which were most delicious, and greatly appreciated after the long drive, and we all came home feeling the day had been well spent. Our thanks to Mr. J. Keith who took his car, and in every way made our trip enjoyable.

July 1 was celebrated in fine style at the Elks Sports Ground. The day was perfect and a good crowd was on hand to make merry. The holiday ended with the usual big dance at night in the Community Centre. The lucky ticket on the boat was held by Mrs. Hugo of Smith.

Very sorry to report Mrs. G. B. East ill in hospital.

NO TIME FOR DELAY at HARVEST

Harvest is the reward for the year's work in the field. However, an efficient job of harvesting is necessary if you are to reap the entire reward. Much can be lost through delays, breakdowns or poor operation of harvest equipment.

For this reason, most farmers pay special attention to their harvesting equipment. Modern machines have greatly reduced the labour requirements of harvest. However, the machines wear out and the purchase of new equipment means a major expenditure before the returns from harvest are available.

Should you need new harvest equipment, there is no need to attempt the harvest with worn-out machines. Imperial Bank Farm Improvement Loans are available to help you purchase the machines best suited to your needs.

The Loans for as much as two-thirds of the purchase price of the machines up to $4,000 are available. They are repayable in not more than 3 years with simple interest at 5%. These loans are available not only for the machines to harvest the crop but also for trucks in which the harvest can be hauled and moveable granaries in which the crop can be stored.

Your local Imperial Bank Manager understands the requirements of farm finance and will be glad to give you full information on how to obtain a Farm Improvement Loan. Drop into his office for a chat.

The Fighting Mouse

One of the most surprising developments of the whole messy Korean war, now over three years, old, is the continuing antagonism of Syngman Rhee, the Korean President, to the truce negotiations.

Theoretically, the war would be over if it weren't for the bitter fighting do-or-die spirit of the South Koreans. Invaded by the North Koreans in 1950 and almost beaten in spite of the help of the entire United Nations, the weakling South Korean army has become a "mighty mouse" among the nations of the world.

Wrong as we think the Republic of Korea is in opposing an armistice, and weak as it still undoubtedly is because of lack of natural resources, the little war-torn nation is to be admired for this display of spirit. They want the war to continue until North Korea and South Korea are one single nation.

How long, we wonder, can the ROKS hold out against the combined wills of the Communists and United Nations for an end to the fighting?

Justice Has Triumphed

Two weeks ago, in an editorial in this page, we pointed out to our readers the gross inequality of justice in two recent court decisions on homicide. We stressed the fact that Lorang Sorum, guilty of deliberately killing one man in Edmonton should not be hung for his crime when another man, Alex Standing-at-the-door was given only ten years in prison for bringing death to a whole group of people by deliberate means.

We are gratified, therefore, to note that the death sentence imposed on Lorang Sorum former University of Alberta student scheduled to be hanged July 7 for the murder of an Edmonton oil executive, has been commuted to life imprisonment.

This is a victory for Justice in Alberta, and Lorang Sorum will be spared to live out his natural life in the penitentiary where he can be given some useful work to do.

It is time Canadian justice was brought up to date by abolishing the death penalty altogether. In the case of murder, it is pretty hard to define any criminal as sane, because how could a sane mind plot to take the life of another? The most revolting crimes are usually committed by the obviously insane. But we spare the life of a so-called "insane" criminal found guilty of taking the life of another and hang the others. The fear of the death penalty hasn't stopped men like Lorang Sorum from committing murder. So the death penalty should be abolished from our criminal code.

Males: The Weaker Sex

Dr. Einer Perman, head surgeon of a large Stockholm hospital, says the male sex is much weaker than the female. The surgeon's statement is similar to others of that nature made by prominent doctors and surgeons for many years.

The female sex has proven superior in many tests of endurance and males have proven less durable and less flexible. This is apparently borne out by the average life span of men and women, men dying at an earlier age, on the average.

Dr. Perman advises the average male to let his wife run the house and wash the dishes. Men, he says, should relax when they come home from work and should take as many naps as possible. This is the advice many men have long awaited, although they may have difficulty in following it.

Watch Out For Hail!

Already the Alberta Hail Insurance Board reports hundreds of claims coming in for Hail Damage to the 1953 crop. During June nearly every second day brought hail damage to one Alberta district or another.

But it is still not too late for thousands of farmers to get Hail Insurance before a hail storm wipes out their year's investment. There are insurance agents in just about every town, village and hamlet. And it is still better to have Hail Insurance and not need it than to need it and not have it.

Provincial Liquor Laws Need Overhauling

From the Leduc Representative

Rarely in the past has our provincial government laid itself open to a charge of hypocrisy in its legislation; mistakes there have been, and political opponents have not been slow to point them out, but they have for the most part been honest mistakes, based on sincere attempts to remedy conditions as they existed. Unfortunately, this cannot be said of the manner in which the government is pussyfooting around the matter of liquor legislation. The amendments as recently brought down in the legislature are merely designed to remove a few of the more outstanding errors in phrasing which should never have appeared in the first place, and also to extend the hours of sale of liquor, at the discretion of the control board; they do nothing to remove the ridiculous regulations and controls which make Alberta liquor laws a figure of fun even in a country which, at no place or time, has shown outstanding wisdom in dealing with the question. In addition, the premier is obviously, within his legal rights in refusing to divulge the report of the "unofficial" commission which investigated the whole problem last year, but his moral grounds are a little more uncertain. The legislature, and the people of the province, have a right to know what conclusions were reached by the investigators and what recommendations were made, even if they are not to be implemented by the government.

The present regulations permit mixed drinking in Alberta everywhere except in the cities of Calgary and Edmonton, we understand. We don't know if experience has shown that mixed drinking is good or bad; furthermore, we couldn't care less. But if the principle is good in Cochrane it should be all right in Calgary; and if it is bad in Edmonton it seems to us that it would be equally bad in Edson. The government exercises strict control over the sale of liquor, which is as it should be, and as a result of this control it reaps many millions of dollars of revenue each year; yet the whole purpose of liquor legislations seems to be to make the purchase and use of liquor a more or less clandestine and disreputable business, the only good point being the profits which emerge therefrom. No liquor advertising is permitted in the province—yet every magazine and periodical which comes in the Eastern Canada, B.C., or the United States is filled with such advertising and no attempt is or could be made to control it.

In dealing with the whole problem, the government has not shown the courage or honesty with which they have faced up to other problems or which the people of the province have a right to expect from their elected representatives. Away with such half measures and remedies which cure nothing. Let's have an honest and clear-cut policy, in line with the wishes of the people as a whole, whatever such wishes may be; if the government does not know what the people want, we suggest that they conduct a plebiscite to find out. This hypocritical pussyfooting around the edge of an admittedly controversial subject does not increase respect for the powers that be at Edmonton.

A Sensible Move

Starting this month, employees of the Alberta Government, including Treasury Branches, will enjoy a five-day work week. About 4,000 will be affected and if they have to work an extra hour a day to make up for the half-day off on Saturday, it will be worth it.

It is difficult for Governments and Industry to maintain full staffs of competent employees these days. Naturally good workers hire themselves out to employers who pay the best wages and have the better conditions. An important feature of improvement along this line is the institution of a five-day work week. It gives the employee one full day, unbroken by office or shop hours, to enjoy work or play in the great outdoors.

Bible Today

And the prince shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate without, and shall stand by the post of the gate, and the priests shall prepare his burnt-offering and his peace offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate; but the gate shall not be shut until the evening.—Ezekiel: 46-1.

ROK AND RYE

Voice of the People

WANTS CHANGE IN POLICY

When Malenkov said in his inaugural address, "There are not any, and there will not be any question which cannot be resolved by peaceful means," he presented a challenge to the West of more danger than at first suspected. The statement is clear-cut and definite and quite consistent with his former statements. He said in 1950 on the occasion of Stalin's 70th birthday, "Russia is now surrounded for the first time in history with friendly nations in both Europe and Asia... the Soviet Union struggles for world peace. Russia urges peace, and we do not fear competition with capitalism. Stalin himself said last October, in the closing session of the party congress, "The interests of our party, not only do not contradict, but on the contrary, merge with the interests of peace-loving peoples everywhere." It is the increased emphasis which Malenkov gives to these statements which now constitutes a grave and real threat to the Western world.

It is clear the new Russian government is moving with vigor to end the cold war, and to place the responsibility for its continuance on the U.S. In Korea, the Chinese and North Koreans have accepted the Allies' terms for an armistice, and Russia is steadily modifying her attitude toward Western Europe, East Germany, Yugoslavia, Austria, and is bidding for trade and commercial relations with Britain, and the Commonwealth, with Iran and Turkey. She has released 2,000,000 prisoners and is opening up her borders to correspondents for free unhampered trips through Russia. Communism could become much more dangerous under its new leaders in several ways. First, it can lose some of its totalitarian nature and become more of a group government, or oligarchy, giving more freedoms of criticism and speech, individual ownership of lands and more material goods, thus cutting away much of the basis of our superior appeal. Second, the opening of the "iron curtain" indicates that Russia proper, in the view of the present leaders, has made considerable progress under communism and will compare favorably with the countries of the West, and will accordingly be attractive to the people of France and Italy, etc. Third, Malenkov's peace program is confirming the idea that war is not likely, which means the cutting of armaments costs, of help to Europe and possible recession in business, perhaps a depression.

Fourth, for years the Russian leaders have made it plain that they expect the economic collapse of the capitalist world, and now they are sure that that collapse is at hand, and are preparing to capitalize on the gathering trade rivalries by offering attractive trade propositions.

Fifth, they are preparing to hold up communism as the great liberator of the oppressed classes.

If the U.S. is to keep its leadership it will have to lead given so eloquently by President Eisenhower in his great speech, and change its tactics to a positive constructive policy looking to the rebuilding of the world, and the lifting of the underprivileged in the lands still considered within the orbit of the free world, otherwise she will find a steadily developing resistance to her unilateral leadership, and a greater and greater emphasis on the United Nations under the guidance of Britain and the Commonwealth.

LETTER TO LOUISA

Ignores Girl Friend In Daytime Still Wants Her To Go On Dates

Dear Louisa:

I've been staying in town during this term of school. I have gone out with a few boys but now I am in love with a boy of twenty. He said he loves me but during the day when I see him he seems as if he is mad at me. He said he would like me to go out with him during the summer holidays. I would like to go out with him but I don't want my parents to know about me going out. Do you think I should tell my parents? My brothers approve of it but my parents don't.

Elizabeth

Answer:

Dear Elizabeth:

There are three things wrong with your situation.

First, although you state it last, the fact that you haven't told your parents of this boy friend is the most unfortunate part of your problem. A young lady such as you, living at home, should have no reason for keeping this information from your parents. Why don't you get your brothers to invite him to your home and meet your parents?

Secondly, I doubt very much if this young man cares for you if he ignores you in daytime. Surely if he loves you he will treat you with approval and respect at every meeting, whether casual or arranged, at any time.

Third—and very important. You aren't old enough to take any boy of twenty seriously and if you are going to enjoy your youth as you should you'll have to cultivate the friendship of other young people, boys and girls. You should get into the social whirl this summer but don't let one surly character who hasn't the sense to treat you with respect at other times monopolize your entire book of summer dates.

Edmonton To Send Delegation To Watch Tower Convention

Edmonton will be represented by a delegation of more than 550 at the International Convention of Jehovah's Witnesses, Yankee Stadium, New York City. Mr. J. Rudko, presiding minister here and head of the delegation, announced today that the group will travel by special train, plane and automobile to join more than 125,000 other witnesses of Jehovah in their 8-day convention opening July 9.

Mr. Rudko pointed out that Jehovah's witnesses are coming from every province in Canada and nearly 100 countries to participate in the largest religious convention ever to be held in America. Charter planes carrying delegates from Africa, Europe and Latin America will soon converge on New York. Large delegations from Australia, New Zealand, South Africa and the Orient are already on the high seas. Some 18,000 Canadians are expected to attend.

Sandwiches 30 Cents In Beer Parlors

Even if your friend doesn't drink, he can now order a sandwich if he accompanies you to a Hotel Beer Parlor. A. J. Mason announced the new regulations which took effect July 1st.

Accordingly, beer parlors must serve sandwiches, and the maximum price of a sandwich will be 30 cents. The Beverage Dispensers' Union previously opposed serving of sandwiches in beer parlors but Mr. Mason said he did not anticipate any trouble over the move.

In licensed premises, beer will be sold only in one-dozen and half-dozen cartons. New beer parlor prices are $3.30 for a dozen and $1.70 for a half dozen, compared to the previous prices of $3.24 for a dozen and $1.63 for a half dozen. Price of beer purchased at the vendors will not be changed.

It is nice for other people to go to church and that includes you.

Over Thirteen Hundred Animals Get Bang's Disease Vaccination In M.D.

SOUTH EDMONTON — At the June 19th meeting of the Agricultural Service Board the Field Supervisor reported on calfhood vaccination for Bang's control, coyote control, and distribution of forage crop seed, as follows:

This spring to date 1,275 calves were vaccinated and 60 mature animals were blood-tested for sale by public auction. Since our municipality adopted a coyote policy two years ago 183 ratepayers have been served with 565 getters, 1,294 chemical cartridges, 227 strychnine capsules together with the necessary setting pins, bait, literature, etc. On the basis of one third of those who received this material having reported 168 coyotes caught, the Supervisor felt justified in assuming that our coyote population has been reduced by 500. Forage crop seed purchased through the municipal office this spring to date amounted to 61,330 lbs.

The bi-monthly meeting of the Agricultural Service Board of the Municipal District of Strathcona No. 83, was held in the Council Chamber, Rural Administration Building, 10426 - 81 Avenue, Edmonton, Alberta, on Friday, June 19th, 1953, with the following members in attendance:

E. Keith, Chairman; F. R. McCalla, Ratepayers' Representative; B. J. Whitbread, Government Representative; M. L. Stetson, Field Supervisor.

The Field Supervisor submitted correspondence received since last meeting, together with his replies.

The question of roadside spraying for brush control was discussed and it was decided that this matter should come before the next regular meeting of the Council for their consideration.

Mr. B. L. Whitbread reported that entries this year in both the "Save the Soil" and "Farm and Home" competitions were up 10% in the four municipalities touching the city. Mr. Whitbread also reported that tentative plans had

EDMONTON (BUP)—John Harry of Edmonton was treated for severe facial injuries after police found him sitting in a taxicab bleeding severely from facial wounds. 1 for EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

The Editor will pay $1.00 for every item published on "The Most Embarrassing Moment of My Life." To qualify items must be true, personal incidents. Address "Embarrassing Moments," P.O. Box 4430, South Edmonton.

The most embarrassing moment in my life took place at school. Our teacher is very strict and he doesn't want us to eat candy in school. Well, this day I had peppermint candies in my shirt pocket. When it was time our teacher said, "Please pick up the paper on the floor." As I bent down to pick up the papers, all the candies (18) fell out and went out rattling on the floor. The whole class laughed and the teacher said, "You better pick up your candies." I was so embarrassed I couldn't even tell him I didn't want to.

Billy Zarutzky, Mayerthorpe.

About one minute before twelve o'clock midnight New Year's Eve our gang was standing in a group in the hall. I had been bragging to my girlfriend that I was sweet sixteen and never been kissed and would keep my record even on New Year's Eve. One boy in our gang had been listening and turned around to say, "What does Mr. X—do, slobber?" Golly was I embarrassed!

THE LIGHTER SIDE

Remarkable!

Schoolmaster — If Shakespeares were alive today, would he still be regarded as a remarkable man?
Pupil—I'd think so, for he'd be over 300 years old.

Sticking To It

Wife—"Mother says she nearly died laughing over those stories you told her."

Hub—"Where is she? I'll tell her some funnier ones."

Smart Scotchman

Two Scotchmen tossed to see who would pay for the dinner. The winner called "Heads". The loser called "Fire!"—and escaped in the confusion.

Absurd

Urey — Your absurdity would make a donkey laugh.

Fagua—Yeah, I noticed you was laughing.

The Cure

"What cured him of arguing with his wife?"
"Arguing with his wife."

Hopeless

"How much is a wee tiny small radio, mister?"

"Six dollars, son."

"Gee, that's almost $9 more than I got".

Changed Viewpoint

"Did the voyage cure you of your insomnia?"

"Absolutely".

"Well, that must be a relief".

"It certainly is. Why, I lie awake half the night thinking of how I used to suffer from it."

Musical Calendar

Manager (in music store): How long did you work in the last place?

New Pianist: From "Dardanella" to "Red Sails in the Sunset".

A lawyer engaged in a case tormented a witness so much with questions, that the poor fellow at last cried out for water.

"There," said the judge, "I thought you would pump him dry."

First Lawyer: "I've just taken the case of that woman who says she shot her husband because she loved him."

Second Lawyer: "I suppose your plea will be that spring is the time for tender shoots."

A lawyer acquaintance just out of college was pleading his first case. The nasty railroad company had killed twenty-four of his farmer client's hogs. The young lawyer was trying to impress the jury with the magnitude of the injury.

"Imagine twenty-four hogs, gentlemen! Twenty-four! Twice the number there are in the jury box."

The doctor smiled as he entered the room.

"You look much better today,"

"Yes, I followed the directions on your medicine bottle."

"What were they?"

"Keep the bottle tightly corked."

Aggrieved One: "She's been throwing things at me ever since we was married."

Magistrate: "Then why have you not complained before?"

Aggrieved One: "This is the first time she's hit me."

"What were you doing about that chicken-coop at midnight, Mose?"

The judge asked.

"Jes' circulatin' roun', Jedge; jes' circulatin' roun'."

"Clerk, make a notation: "Withdrawn from circulation for 60 days."

'Tornado' Hits DeWinton Farm

Russell Evans, a farmer living about six miles west of DeWinton, is convinced a baby "tornado" was responsible for $2,000 worth of damage to his farm recently.

Although weather officials are inclined to believe the "tornado" was just a high wind, Evans said he watched a funnel-shaped cloud rip off his barn roof and toss wagons around the yard. Wooden rafters of the barn were caved in and a number of chickens were killed.

Evans said the funnel-shaped cloud sucked water into the air about 100 feet. He said he had gone for mail when he saw the storm approaching. He was running back toward the farm when the storm passed between him and the buildings.

CANADIAN AUTOMOBILE EXECUTIVE IS KILLED BY MAU MAU TERRORISTS

NAIROBI—A Canadian automobile executive, J. S. Richards, died in hospital in Nairobi last week shortly after he had been shot at during a Mau Mau raid.

Richards had arrived during the afternoon by air from South Africa on a business trip. He was taken to a hospital after the shooting on one of Nairobi's main streets, and died soon afterwards.

Police believe an attempt was being made by the terrorists to break into a gunsmith's shop in a dak alley off the main street where they were surprised by police. They shot at the police officer and one of the bullets struck Richards.

The dead executive was born in Winnipeg, and grew up at the Lakehead. He worked for the Bank of Canada and a paper company in Fort William. He joined the Ford Motor Company in 1928. He served overseas during the Second World War, and in 1945 was assistant manager of the Mercury-Lincoln division, and then moved to Toronto as district manager of the Ford-Monarch division, and later he was transferred to Port Elizabeth as managing director and treasurer, with the company's South African affiliation.

Annual Picnic Is Successful

GRASSLAND — In spite of threatening weather, attendance at the Grand Annual Grassland Picnic was up to the average of the past years, and quite a substantial sum will be available to reduce the indebtedness of the Community League.

In the ball games, Lac la Biche beat Boyle 5-4, and in a most exciting final Wandering River beat Lac la Biche 9-7. Games of all kinds added to the fun, and the day's entertainments ended with a picture show and dance.

The thanks of the directors are due to all who helped to make the picnic a success, especially to the boys and girls of school age, who worked untiringly.

Dance Attracts Many

FALHER — The Calico Dance which was held on Friday, June 26, in the Arena reported a profit of $125.90 for the Falher Baseball Club. Jeannine LaCoursiere won first prize, a pair of pillow cases, for having the prettiest calico dress, with Yvonne Guenette and Jocelyn Quet running second and third and each winning a pair of nylons.

Providing that the McLeannan orchestra will be available, another dance will be held on July 10. Be watching for posters.

Lac la Biche Mission News Briefs

Mrs. Albert Carrier came home after staying with her mother at Edmonton for a few months. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. A. Carrier for their new born baby girl.

Mrs. Louis Tardif went to the hospital at Lac la Biche. She will come back home Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Tardif are proud parents of a new baby girl born on June 12.

Sunday, June 21 was very successful for the Mission Church picnic. The parish says thanks to Mrs. E. Cloutier for her organization and her work was well appreciated, also all the ladies who were helping and thanks too to the Rev. Sister Fille de Jesus.

Christine Robert came from Edmonton visiting the Rev. Fille de Jesus. She went to school here for many years until she completed Grade 8. She returned home by bus with her two brothers Paul and Gerard. They will have their residence at Edmonton.

Paul Cloutier was here Sunday. He came by bus from Legal. He had returned for his work.

Mr. William Bushnel from St. Paul, and wife, with their little girls, came visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. Bushnel. They also visited Mrs. J. Schaub from Plamondon.

Alice Ladouceur came visiting relatives and friends lately.

Rose Alma Ladouceur came from Edmonton to visit her Dad and Mother.

Mr. Paul Parrente went to the Lac la Biche Hospital for medical treatment last week. He was transported in the emergency by Jos. Cloutier with his car.

The concert was very good Sunday night and we have to say thanks to the Rev. Sisters for their work.

Social Credit Still Gaining

VANCOUVER (EUP) — British Columbia's Social Credit party is building up a stronger majority as the results are slowly tabulated in the provincial election.

The complicated alternative vote system has made for slow returns especially in the big Vancouver ridings where the system has been further complicated by recounts.

So far, the Social Credit party has seated 20 of its members; the CCF 13; Liberals, three; Conservatives, one; and Labor, none.

Social Credit leads in nine ridings and the CCF in one.

The only set-back Premier W. A. C. Bennett's government has suffered is the defeat of Finance Minister Einar Gunderson. All other cabinet members have either been returned or are leading.

Intelligent conversation is best saved when some people we know are encountered.

Caslan News Briefs

Mr. S. Lukasuk was in Edmonton over the week-end to see his son Edward.

Caslan is having their annual picnic on July 25. Ball games, horse shoe and races will be held. Everyone is welcome to come and have a good time. The picnic is sponsored by the school board.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Kniazky were in Edmonton over the last week-end visiting the former's father who is in the hospital.

Mr. M. Kowalchuk is going to Edmonton to attend the summer school classes for the coming six weeks.

Church services were held at the South Noral Church on June 28. Mr. and Mrs. Steve Gordey, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Cherniwchan and Mr. and Mrs. George Gordey were christening their sons.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Meyer had a family re-union on July 1 when all their family were together for a picnic at the lake on A. Adaszynski's farm. It was the first time in about five years the family was all together. Four grandchildren were the only ones absent from the group.

Cyrus Ching is expected to head the atom labor panel. If you have two real friends, you are batting above average.

Why The Catholic Church Says "INVESTIGATE!"

Probably not more than a handful of people hate the Catholic Church as it really is.

But many have heard anti-Catholic calumnies from sources they have been taught to respect, and have come to fear and suspect the Church as it has been falsely represented to them.

It is hardly reasonable to believe that hundreds of millions of people would remain in the Catholic Church if the rumors circulated against the Church are true. Nor would thousands of others become Catholics every year if they believed such things — without inquiring into the facts.

That is why the Catholic Church says again and again to people everywhere: "Investigate! Investigate!"

The Church makes this appeal not merely to settle an argument, nor primarily to win the good-will of the non-Catholic people, although this is a hoped-for result.

Its more important aim is to invite people to inquire into Christ's truth as taught and preserved by the Catholic Church down through the centuries. For no man, seeking the salvation of his own soul, can conscientiously discount the Catholic claim to be Christ's Church on the basis of mere rumor and slander when the truth is so readily at hand.

The Catholic Church therefore invites you to inquire into its teaching and practices ... to find out for yourself if what you believe about the Church is true or false.

Learn for yourself, for instance, if it is true that Catholics give divine worship to Mary, the Mother of Christ ... or if this is not just another calumny. If you have been led to believe that Catholics worship idols and statues ... buy and sell the divine worship of the Mass ... are opposed to the religious freedom granted all religions by our national laws, then you have been deceived and misled.

If you have harbored these or any other false beliefs about the Catholic Church and its teachings ... and if, above all, such misunderstanding has kept you from examining the Catholic claim to be the Church established by Christ Himself ... you owe it to yourself in good conscience to seek the truth.

FREE—We shall be glad to send you free on request, a booklet dealing with the points mentioned here and many others ... including the attitude of the Church toward Birth Control ... secret societies ... the salvation of non-Catholics ... why Catholic priests are called "Father" ... the Inquisition and the alleged goings-on behind convent walls. Write today ... ask for your copy of Pamphlet No. 7—KC.
